

Since the Do Not Call list has been created I have been able to enjoy my quiet time during dinner hour with my husband, and my answering machine is not filled with nonsense calls and prerecorded messages leaving no room for important messages from my children or husband.